9. Can an Eligible Shareholder pay in excess of the monies due from him towards First and Final call?

Eligible Shareholders are advised to pay only the amount which is due on the First and Final call. Excess payment if any would be refunded or would be unblocked in the Eligible Shareholder's account (in case of ASBA).

Any payment from non-Eligible Shareholder would also be refunded to him / unblocked in his account as the case may be.

10. Is part payment permitted?

Eligible Shareholders are advised to make payment in full of the First and Final call. If the amount paid is less than the First and Final call due, such amount will be adjusted @ ₹5 per partly paid-up equity share and the balance money which cannot be adjusted for a whole share will be refunded. Such Eligible Shareholder will be deemed "in arrears of payment of First and Final call" to the extent of partly paid-up equity shares on which the First and Final call remains unpaid and the consequences of failure to pay the First and Final call would apply to him.

For example - If a shareholder holds 10 partly paid-up equity shares as on the First and Final Call Record Date, the aggregate amount payable by such holder pursuant to the First and Final Call Money will be ₹ 50/-. If such holder makes a partial payment of ₹ 25/-, such holder will receive such number of fully paid-up Equity Shares converted in proportion to the payment made i.e., 5 partly paid-up Equity Shares. Partly paidup equity shares in respect of which the First and Final Call Money payable remains unpaid may be forfeited, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the Articles of Association of the Company and the Letter of Offer..
